(Sound of door closing)

BW: I'm Bryan Witt with the Sierra Vista FBI Office.

RH: How ya doin'?

BW: I'll show ya my ID real quick. Would you have a moment of time to talk to us real quick?

RH: Concerning?

BW: It's about a personal matter; it's, I gotta show ya some documents and stuff. It's a vehicle purchase.

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

RH: It's from who?

BW: Um, it's, I think it was somethin', Carlos Lopez, or somethin', back in September of oh...I have to show you the paperwork, that's why I wanted to go over the paperwork with ya.

RH: That I purchased?

BW: Yeah, that's...Well, I actually gotta make sure you're the one that purchased it. So that's why, um, I can show you the paperwork, and if I have the paperwork wrong then we can kinda go over it from there. Sorry to, sorry to come unannounced. I didn't know we were...

RH: Oh, that's all right.

BW: Yeah.

RH: (UI) something goin' on.

BW: Oh, yeah, that's no problem.
(Sound of door closing)

RH: Hey, Jody.

JLNU: Hey, Ronald.

BW: The names don't jump out at me 'cause it's not my case, they're...It involves, uh, I don't know if you've heard of Caliche or Carlos?

RH: I have.

BW: Well, I think you know, you probably know who he is. Um, that investigation, there's an FBI, Sierra FBI's in it and DEA and it's a OCDETF. I think you know what OCDETF is. They are preparing for trial with him and they're chasin' down every vehicle that has ever been affiliated with him.

RH: Got it.

194D-PX-80372

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

BW: And so they're sendin' me out on a bunch of bullshit stuff. But, um, one of 'em is, uh, one of the vehicles, I think, came back to you. Let me look at the paperwork here and I can show ya. If it's the wrong one, you know, I don't know. Um, these are the paper, this is the paperwork that, and maybe it can refresh your memory. I don't... 'Cause, like I said, it's not my case.

RH: Mm-hmm.

BW: There's thirty of these vehicles, at least, that I need to chase down and talk to every person, um, and just basically trace it back to each owner and see if there's any connection to that.

RH: Yeah. Now this vehicle didn't have a title to it and I applied for a title.

BW: Okay, yeah, okay, well, I'm glad that I had the right person.

RH: You do, yeah.

BW: I wanted to make sure.

RH: And I took title to it...

BW: Okay.

RH: ...and then I sold it to whoever this guy is.

BW: Okay. Well then let me just go over the basics...

RH: Okay.

BW: ...and then, um...

RH: But I know the Caliche's deal very well because my wife, uh, is from Mexico.

BW: Okay.

RH: And she's from Naco so I know the Caliche deal.

BW: Okay.

RH: Do you know who Caliche is?

BW: I, I know he's a drug dealer.

RH: Yeah.

BW: Well, okay...

RH: Big time.

BW: Well, how about this, I know enough that he's indicted and he's not goin' to trial yet. But what we're doin' is every vehicle they're doin' a title history search on, and so we're just chasin' it back. And every person...Like I gotta talk to whoever owned this before...

RH: Right.

BW: ...you and then whoever you sold it to.

RH: Right.

BW: And so I'm just goin' through all the stuff. I just gotta make sure, um...Like, this vehicle, how did you, how did you come across it, or, like, who did you buy it from, how about, yeah, let's start there.

RH: There's a friend of mine, or a friend, named George, down in Mexico that owned the vehicle...

BW: Okay.

RH: ...and he asked me if I would sell it for him or try to sell it for him.

BW: Okay. Do you know George, George's last...

RH: George, um, I don't even know his last name.

BW: Okay. Well, and then we...

194D-PX-80372

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

KF/jan

RH: I said, here's what I said. I said, well, do you have a title to it? He said, no, I don't have a title to it. It was, uh, you know, traded for me for another vehicle.

BW: Okay.

RH: And so in order to sell it in the United States, you gotta have a title.

BW: Right, right.

RH: So I applied for an abandoned title and then the title, I got the title and then I sold it to whoever this guy was and gave George...

BW: Okay.

RH: ...the money.

BW: Okay. So is George like a dealer down there? Is he kinda...

RH: I think he is a dealer.

BW: Okay, like a, like a car dealer.

RH: No, I wouldn't say he's a car dealer.

BW: Oh.

RH: I mean, I don't know him from any direct (UI).

BW: Okay.

RH: I just know him as a friend of...

BW: Well, you and I both know that there's a lot of vehicle hustlin' that goes on south.

RH: Yeah.

BW: And so, but George is someone that, like, your wife... What's your wife's name?

RH: Eugenia.
BW: Eugenia.
RH: Aguirre.
BW: Okay.
RH: A-G-U-I-R-R-E.
BW: Okay. And now, would she know who George is, or...
RH: His last name?
BW: I mean, like if we had to talk to George and find out where he got this truck.
RH: Yeah, I don't think she'd have a...I mean, I'm tryin'...
BW: Okay. But like is he in AP or somethin'?
RH: No, he's in Naco somewhere.
BW: Okay, so Naco, Mexico. All right, that's no big deal. Bottom line is George wants, you helped him sell it here in the U.S...
RH: Right.
BW: ...to clear the title and...
RH: To clear the title.
BW: Okay.
RH: And I got the abandoned title...
BW: Okay.
RH: ...and then I sold it to whoever...
BW: Whoever that was.

RH: ... (UI) Carlos.

BW: What, uh, so did you get any money from, did George pay you any money to do that or...

RH: No.

BW: Okay, no.

RH: He didn't pay me no money whatsoever.

BW: It was just like a favor.

RH: Right.

BW: Okay.

RH: Originally, the truck was gonna go on a car lot here in Hereford.

BW: Okay.

RH: And so I took it to this guy and ask him, would he sell it? He said, yeah, he could sell it but he'd have to have a title.

BW: Oh, yeah, yeah, 'cause...

RH: And so...

BW: ...otherwise it's hard to...

RH: ...I said, that makes sense. So and then when I put it on this guy's car lot to sell, I was gonna get a hundred dollars outa the deal.

BW: Okay.

RH: And then two days later, George called and said that this guy, he had a guy from Tucson that wanted to buy it...

BW: Okay.

194D-PX-80372

RH: ...and so...

BW: And so, George...I don't even, what's the name of the next purchaser?

RH: Where?

BW: Wait, which one? I don't even know who...Is that...

RH: Let me see.

BW: ...the Pacheco, or whatever that name is, is that who we're talkin' about?

RH: That's it.

BW: Okay. So how did, so George set up Omar...

RH: Right.

BW: ...or whatever that guy is. Okay, so George said I got a, I got a friend up in Tucson and that's Omar. 'Cause he's, like, my next step is gonna be talkin' to Omar and say, all right what...Because I don't know at what point, you know how sources are.

RH: Right.

BW: If a source says a truck's dirty...

RH: Exactly.

BW: ...then maybe Omar is the one that ran it.

RH: Yeah.

BW: So I, I just have to, you know how it is, I gotta, I gotta...

RH: Yeah.

BW: ...document every step.

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

KF/jan

RH: I'm tellin' ya, it wouldn't surprise me if that, you know, the truck...

BW: Well, because what...Who'd they give me on, let me see on Omar...Actually, let me just make sure we're talkin' about the right...They gave me some pictures. Like I said, I hate workin' on other people's cases. This guy, now is that the guy who bought it?

RH: Mmm.

BW: Or would you just have met him once?

RH: I met him, like, in the parking lot of a Shell Station. I don't even...

BW: Okay.

RH: ...hardly know him.

BW: Okay. But that's what George, George said, hey, this...

RH: Right.

BW: ...is the guy who can buy this. And you're, like, cool. Um, 'cause I'm tryin' to think, did he come down here to Sierra Vista or where did you sell it?

RH: No, up in Tucson.

BW: 'Cause I don't know this, I don't know MVD documents that well. But at some point there was an odometer certification, that notary there. Do you know where that would have been signed? 'Cause I don't know if you would of had to be there.

RH: (UI)

BW: 'Cause, I mean, you've got notaries here in the building, I think, or wouldn't you? I don't know if you did it here, or if you did it up in Tucson, or do you remember?

194D-PX-80372

1D-1

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

RH: The notary, let me see, Cochise County, it would of been here.

BW: Well, that's what, yeah, that's what I'm tryin' to track. Evelyn L-, I think it's Evelyn Locks (PH)...

RH: Locks.

BW: ...or Lo-. I don't, they gave, they were supposed to give me photos of everybody. I don't know if it'd ring a bell. Like I said, I'm helpin' these guys out. 'Cause you can imagine them goin' to trial, they have fifty or thirty some. This is who they say she is. Does that ring a bell with you of who that could be? I mean, I don't, she might just be a clerk. Is she a clerk here in the courthouse or...And I think you would know if...

RH: I don't know her.

BW: Okay.

RH: I don't think I had to get it notarized to transfer the ownership. I think I just had to sign my name to it...

BW: Right.

RH: ...and write on the back of the title and then report it sold.

BW: Okay.

RH: That's what I...

BW: But these dates all look...

RH: They look pretty...Yeah, they're...

BW: I mean, like, it's September eighteenth is when you...

RH: Yeah, that's right.

BW: ...cleared up the title. It looked like you registered titled, and then bought...

194D-PX-80372

1D-1

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

RH: Any date that I wrote on there, I'd stand behind.

BW: Okay. And so, what was, how...George set up...You got the vehicle from George, or who is the Carlos Roman Lopez, do you know who...

RH: No, no idea.

BW: Was that the last person who purchased it or...

RH: Yes.

BW: Okay, that's fine. 'Cause I'll have to try to track that guy down, but...Or whoever it is. Um, let me see, one other thing. This, I think, would have enabled you to get the po-, uh, the power to do that, that's the power of attorney. Once again, I can't really read the notary on there. I don't know if that's someone here in, in, uh, in the building like at the Clerk's Office or... 'Cause I don't know if, if that's the name that George said this is who the last title was in was Carlos Roman Lopez or... 'Cause you don't have to necessarily sign that. I don't know if...

RH: Right.

BW: ...if Geo-, you know, I just don't know.

RH: I don't remember all, I don't remember that.

BW: Okay. I mean, do you know, see, the notary might have record of it. But I, it's, I don't even know where to start because the notary doesn't, the notary's name does not go on any documents, aside from the stamp, and that's why I'm tryin' to...Basically, I have to go to every person and I, I've hit, I've already hit one roadblock here because I don't know who Car-...Well, George I'll have to try and figure out and then he can tell me where he got the car. And then there's this Carlos Roman Lopez, which he's up in Tucson or somethin'. But it would help if, if I knew who the notary was or if...I don't know. I mean, you know how it is...

194D-PX-80372

RH: Yeah.

BW: ...I'm just chasin' out a lead.

RH: I don't remember that one.

BW: Okay. Do you remember, did you get it registered up in, 'cause this says Bisbee. I don't know if that matters. But did you get it titled and registered at the MVD then?

RH: Yeah, it would have been here in Bisbee.

BW: Do you know who that is?

RH: No.

BW: I can't even read that one, R somethin' D and...Okay, 'cause these are, these are the only documents they gave me. Like, ICE gave me this one and MVD gave me some other stuff. So let me see if there's anything else I can...Um, so bottom line is, when, when you titled it you never purchased it from anybody?

RH: No.

BW: George just...

RH: No, there was no...

BW: This guy...

RH: ...money exchanged.

BW: Okay. And so really George is kind of the key for me...

RH: Yeah.

BW: ...like where he got it. Okay. So no money. And then when you, when you sold it to, uh, uh, the Pacheco guy...

RH: Mm-hmm.

194D-PX-80372

1D-1

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

BW: ...the Tucson guy, did you receive any money?

RH: No, zero.

BW: No money from him.

RH: No money at all from him.

BW: Okay.

RH: Any money that was exchanged was between him and, uh, George.

BW: Okay. But are those dates right? 'Cause the way I'm lookin' at is you titled it on September eighteenth, oh six.

RH: Mm-hmm.

BW: And then it looks like Pacheco, you guys signed, or someone signed somethin' that looks like nine twenty, oh six.

RH: Yeah, (UI).

BW: Is it that quick?

RH: It was within a week...

BW: Okay, okay.

RH: ...of the title.

BW: All right.

RH: Let me see if I can find George's last name.

BW: Yeah, yeah, I'd appreciate it. 'Cause this isn't even my case I don't even wanna spend too much time on it if I don't have to.

RH: Let me see. My wife works at the local doctor so I can call you back with that.

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

BW: Okay. Yeah, let me, actually, I probably should have gave you my, let me give you a card. 'Cause like I said, the key would be, I need to chase it all down. 'Cause I think you know what I have to do. I have to talk...They did a title history search, and so whoever, whoever owned this truck I have to talk to. And, obviously, your name popped up. And I, I can't say for a fact that the truck is definitely a dope vehicle. We just have, the Vanquish agents told me it is.

RH: Okay.

BW: And so, let me see what else I have here. Um, I don't know if I have any other...And, and Caliche, you know who he is, he was arrested back in December of, like, last year.

RH: Right.

BW: So, okay, so no purchase price, no sale price. Um, let's see. So you never advertised it, it's all through George.

RH: Right.

BW: Um, and did you ever get...

RH: (UI)

BW: ...did you ever get the hundred bucks or...

RH: No. Well, no, I told you what happened was, when he asked me to help him to sell the vehicle, 'cause there's no money down in Mexico. Um, I thought I was doin' him a favor so I did. I took it to, uh, it's called Calvary Auto...

BW: Oh.

RH: ...in Sierra Vista. You know where that is.

BW: Yeah, I was gonna say it's off...

RH: Right.

194D-PX-80372

1D-1

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

BW: ...we're in the Haymore Plaza Building.

RH: Right. And there's a guy there...I think they may have closed because the last time I went by there, there were like three cars on the lot and two of 'em were blockin' the entrance.

BW: Is it off Seventh Street?

RH: Uh, (UI).

BW: Oh, I don't even know.

RH: It's right there, it's not in town, it's on ninety-two out there by, uh, there's the feed store...

BW: Oh, I know.

RH: ...and movie theaters.

BW: Okay, yeah, yeah.

RH: Calvary.

BW: South, like off of...

RH: I went into that guy and gave him the truck and he agreed to sell it for me. And he sells it on a commission basis.

BW: Sure, sure.

RH: And so, uh, then two days later George called and said this guy up in Tucson, he had a friend that wanted to buy it...

BW: Yeah.

RH: ...would I take it up there? And I said, well, yeah, I'll take it up there. I took it up there; met some guy at a gas station, this guy here...

BW: The Pacheco guy.

194D-PX-80372

1D-1

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

RH: ...and signed it over.

BW: I mean, could that have been him, or who knows? I mean, you just meet.

RH: Right.

BW: Yeah. And...

RH: I was so glad to be rid of it, quite frankly.

BW: (Chuckles) Yeah. Well, it's good that you, I mean, depending on what this truck was up to, it's good that you only had it...It sounds like you were only clearin' the title.

RH: That's what I was doing.

BW: Right, 'cause these guys, they have these abandoned vehicles. What, on, with Omar, the Pacheco guy, when you signed it in September, did, did he get the truck right then and there?

RH: Right then and there.

BW: Okay, okay. 'Cause I don't know what he's gonna say. he supposed to be up in Tucson. I can't find that guy already. Um, in that picture I think you can tell what he was wearin'.

RH: Right, he's in jail.

BW: Yeah, he's, well, he's not in jail. If he was in jail, I'd be able to track him down.

RH: Yeah, but that's...

BW: So he might, he might be the, he might be the dooper. And so if we say, all right, you know, uh, Chief Hager got rid of it before it was runnin' then, you know... 'Cause, cause the other thing I have to do is, they told me I have to give everyone a grand jury subpoena in case testimony is needed. And this one, I hope I have it, this is just your copy. And we have to provide this to everybody. It lists you as a target, but that's only because you're a potential owner of a vehicle. They have to, they have to say certain things. But I'm talkin' to you right now; this is a personal transaction and it has nothin' to do with...

RH: Right.

BW: ...Cochise County. And, you know, right now this is just, this is just you as a purchaser, you know. And you're just talkin' with me voluntarily...

RH: Right.

BW: ...to, you know...I have to give you a copy of this in case your testimony is needed, December fifth. I'm gonna report back to the guys on the case and then I'll tell them, hey, I talked to, I talked to Chief Hager, this is what he told me. And then they'll, whether or not you have to testify is up to, this is the prosecutor.

RH: Got it.

BW: So I just have to provide you a copy of this because this is in my packet. Um, you have my card and my cell phone number. Is there anything else you can think of on the...I mean, 'cause...

RH: No. But let's make sure before you leave here that you're perfectly clear on my involvement.

BW: Oh, yeah, abso-, no, I mean, that's what I'm here for.

RH: Yeah.

BW: That's what I'm here for, so...

RH: I was asked to sell the vehicle for him in the United States.

BW: Right.

194D-PX-80372

1D-1

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

RH: I didn't have, he didn't have, he needed to get a title, and in order for him to do that, the title had to be in my name.

BW: Right.

RH: And so I got the title in my name and then I took it to Calvary Auto there on, in Sierra Vista.

BW: Right, the one that's off of ninety-two.

RH: Right.

BW: Okay.

RH: And I'm sure if you talk to that guy he'd say, Hager came in signed the paper to have this vehicle, uh, sold.

BW: Right.

RH: What you do is you give 'em the title...

BW: Right.

RH: ...and they agree to sell it and then they charge you like a hundred bucks (UI).

BW: Okay. Do you know who you dealt with at Calvary, is that like...

RH: No, there's only one guy.

BW: Okay.

RH: But it's a guy that owns it.

BW: It's ma and pa.

RH: Yeah.

BW: Okay. Well, I can't go wrong.

194D-PX-80372

1D-1

INTERVIEW OF RONALD HAGER

11/07/2007

KF/jan

RH: And then I called him up in a couple days and said, you know, the guy found someone else that wants to buy it.

BW: Right.

RH: Do I still have to pay the hundred bucks? He said, no, he'll remember me because we, I sold him an ATV...

BW: Okay, right.

RH: ...for my son, too.

BW: Okay.

RH: But so then two days, I went and picked up the truck and George said the guy was gonna meet us, that was gonna buy the truck, was gonna meet at the Shell Station up in, uh, Tucson.

BW: Okay.

RH: And so I took the vehicle up there. And, uh, and George talked to him on the cell phone while I was there, talked to him. Because, you know, I'm a law enforcement officer, I mean, these dopers...

BW: Well, that's what I'm sayin', yeah, that's...

RH: ...want to steer like far away from me. And I assure you, that I'm not naive to what goes, what's goin'...

BW: Oh, yeah.

RH: ...on in Mexico and Caliche.

BW: Oh, yeah.

RH: And I'm keepin' my eyes open for any information that I might see. I even was tryin' to get the license plates off of the vehicle that he came up in, but I couldn't.

BW: Oh, you mean Pacheco?

RH: Whoever.

BW: Or Omar, the buyer..

RH: Right.

BW: Okay. But just so I'm clear, Calvary found Pacheco, or did George find Pacheco?

RH: No, George knew...

BW: Okay.

RH: ...Pacheco.

BW: And Pacheco said I'll jump on that.

RH: George is a doper, Pacheco is probably a doper.

BW: Right.

RH: And where I got involved in it was, I don't know George through the dope business; I know George through family.

BW: Right.

RH: And, uh, and I took it to Tucson...

BW: Right.

RH: ...I exchanged, gave the vehicle...

BW: Right.

RH: ...the title and I was done with it.

BW: Oh, yeah, yeah, but you see where I'm...

RH: Oh, absolutely.

BW: The Vanquish agents are gonna go through every title history of every vehicle that is claimed to be a dope-load vehicle.

RH: You tell these guys if they have any questions, I mean...

BW: Oh, absolutely.

RH: ...they can call me anytime.

BW: And this, like I said, this is, this is just, you know these subpoenas are just in case it's needed.

RH: But I don't want to bring any embarrassment to the Sheriff's Office.

BW: Oh, right, right, and, and, and quite frankly, I don't know, like I said, it's not my case. I think Ryan White is the, uh, DEA agent and then there's, Dave Bodily is the FBI guy and I'm just one of Dave's coworkers. And I think there's ICE involved, and stuff like that. But it's in federal court up in Tucson. He's bein' charged with a whole ton of, of weed.

RH: Right.

BW: And they're chasin' down every vehicle that they could ever trace back. And so I don't even know how they traced this one to him or whether it's even a legit.

RH: It's probably, it may be legit, I don't, I wouldn't...

BW: But do you know much about George, like, I mean, you say is it possible that he deals in dope vehicles? Before, like before, when he had it, could it have been dirty then?

RH: It could have.

BW: Right.

RH: It could have.

BW: I mean, just...Okay.

RH: Ya know, I mean...

BW: But is George family to...

RH: ...when I picked it up it wasn't a full load, it didn't have any dope in it...

BW: Oh, no, I know that, yeah, that's a given.

RH: ...none of that kind of stuff.

BW: Right. But does Gina, is he blood relative to Gina?

RH: No, they're just about, like, cousins.

BW: Okay. But she might...Well, you have my cell phone, so if you come up with somethin', like, if you can help me out.

RH: Mm-hmm.

BW: I don't know if I can talk to George if he's a Mexican citizen.

RH: There's no way he's gonna come over here.

BW: I know. You know what...

RH: They were like that, they were like that. See I...

BW: Okay.

RH: ...I didn't know all the details at the time, I mean, I put it all together. I was at a party...

BW: 'Cause this is September, this is September of oh six.

RH: Yeah, I know.

BW: So Caliche hasn't even been popped yet...

RH: Yeah.

BW: ...I don't think.

RH: Yeah, I was at a, uh, I went to a picnic one time over in, uh, Mexico before I was married...

BW: Mm-hmm.

RH: ...and then went to a funeral after I was married. The grandmother died. And when I left and came back over to the United States, um, my wife told me she said, you know, Caliche was there.

BW: At this, at a funeral?

RH: At the funeral.

BW: Okay, right.

RH: I said, he was? She said, yeah. And I said, well, I wish you would have told me that, I'd like to get a good look at him, get a good look at him because, you know, we've been lookin' for him for so long.

BW: Oh, yeah, yeah. And I don't know if he even crossed. Like I said, it's not my case. I just know he, they eventually arrested him in December...

RH: Yeah.

BW: ...or somethin', I don't know.

RH: You tell those investigators and your buddies, that I can assure them...

BW: Oh, yeah, no.

RH: ...when I crossed that vehicle, or when I was involved in that deal, there as no dope, nothin'.

BW: So how did it come, did it come up from the south? Did George bring it to you, or how did you get it?

RH: No, no, I went over there and picked it up...

BW: Okay, okay.

RH: ...and drove it through the Port of Entry.

BW: Was it right, right, right before you titled?

RH: It was either right before or right at the time.

BW: Like within a week.

RH: Yeah.

BW: Okay, so within a week you bring it into the US, you're gonna help out George, um, and like you said, Calvary and George ends up findin' the stuff. But Carlos Roman Lopez, no one knows who he...Or George would maybe.

RH: Maybe.

BW: No. So I guess and abandoned title means that Lopez is nowhere to be found.

RH: Right, or Lopez...

BW: Or, yeah, like I said, I don't...

RH: But I will call them and give them the...

BW: The one last thing is if, do you, do you remember anything about this power of attorney though? That, because that's, if I could find that clerk.

RH: Yeah.

BW: See that, whoever that notary is, he or she, I don't even, I can't even read the name, he or she had to witness someone sign this.

RH: Mm-hmm.

BW: And it's supposed to be that person.

RH: Right.

BW: And so that's why I, these stamps, and see, that name of that notary, just like the other one, I, uh, without knowin' who that notary is...

RH: Right.

BW: ...I can't, I can't say, all right, who's... 'Cause I can talk to Lop-, I can find that person if I have, you know, a driver's license, but you see how that's missing.

RH: Right.

BW: The date of birth's missing. And I've got a stamp there that I can't read, unless you can read it. I mean, I...

RH: No.

BW: ...I can't even make out the last...

RH: No.

BW: So, and that's what they gave me. So, I mean, I have nothin', I have nothin' to go on unless you can think of somethin'. So...

RH: No.

BW: Okay. All right. Well, I appreciate your times. Um, you have my card and cell phone number. So if you can help me out, you know what I need to do.

RH: You got it.

BW: I appreciate, uh...

RH: And I'll, at least I can find out George's name...

BW: Well, yeah...

RH: ...and...

BW: ...but can I talk to him? I don't know. I appreciate your time.

RH: Yeah, let me take you...

BW: Yeah, walk on out. I'll get lost if I wander around by myself, so...But, yeah, that's my, that's my Bureau cell phone, so you can just, if there's somethin' you can think of...Because right now I got a couple gaps, obviously, so...The last time I, I don't know if you remember me talkin' to you, you were a jail commander at the time.

RH: Why's that, what were we talkin' about?

BW: Oh, it was a Stevie Juarez (PH), do you remember Pablo Juarez? We needed some jail calls and Grenzner (PH) helped me, you guys helped me.

RH: Did ya get `em?

BW: Yeah, oh, yeah, we got `em, so I appreciate it.

RH: Okay, (UI).

BW: Thanks a lot. Yeah, I appreciate...

RH: You bet.

BW: ...your time.

RH: You bet.

BW: All right, thanks. Eleven seven, oh seven, twelve oh two.
